Greg Nelson called the P&L meeting to order at 6:30 pm

Approval of September Minutes: 1st – Mary Grace Vogel 2nd – Josephine Jones Vote: Unanimous

Business:

Item: Barrow County Mayor's Association Dinner

P&L presented Bert Scouten as the recipient of the City of Auburn Pillar Award and that he would be given that award at the dinner reception the following evening.

Item: AuburnFest update and upcoming meeting announcements

The board was given an update on AuburnFest and the activities that were planned. We discussed the hayride and the logistics involved in getting everything downtown. We also discussed the OWLS bake sale and what the P&L Board could do to help them be successful.

Item: Sounding Off of the Christmas Season planning and Ice Skating Rink

The Board discussed the Christmas festival. They were informed of the introduction of the Ice Skating Rink for this year and that the DDA would be asking for volunteers to man the rink. The date of 12/1 – 12/27 were the dates given that the rink would be on site and they were told that the City has the option to extend the rink rental until after the first of the year if need be.

Item: O.W.L.S. Update

An update was given on the OWLS luncheons. The speaker for October was Det. John Blocker of the Auburn P.D. Det. Blocker gave a very information speech on the scam against the elderly. He discussed what to be aware of and how to recognize potential scams. After his presentation a group of women stuck around to play games and fellowship.
